

Staff Welfare Policy

Gurunanak College of Arts, Science and Commerce considers its Human Resource (including all teaching, administrative and support staff) the most valuable asset and provides them with various welfare benefits, facilities and services along with comfortable and ethical working environment.